

Please add the following new claim 15:

15. (New) A biodegradable material comprising a mixture of at least one polymer with at least one cereal grain flour which is not subjected to any treatment except to a controlled drying eventually followed by a sifting and/or turboseparation phase, and optionally, one or more acceptable additives.